Means Fun, Work, Progress

This was an important and eventful year — one long to be remembered. The football team, with the zealous support of the student body, won the league championship; the largest crop of students, ever, entered to swell the ranks of loyal Abingtonians; a new school building began to take form. Abington, typical of its tradition, was striving to achieve new goals.

Dedicated to the belief that interchange of ideas is of the utmost importance, Abington began laying foundations to extend the arc of understanding with others beyond the limits of its township. Chosen as the site for next year's Pennsylvania Student Council

Convention, Abington will play host to student representatives from various schools throughout the Commonwealth; and, through the affiliation with Lily Braun Schule, Abington will send a student abroad to study in Germany as its representative of good will.

These events are indicative of a special kind of spirit at work in our school; a spirit dedicated to progress and cooperation; a spirit that emphasizes the desire to promote understanding with others; a spirit marked by a high sense of responsibility to the community, both local and world-wide. These typify the spirit of Abington — the spirit of the Galloping Ghost.

Staff members Janet Smith, Barbara Spindell, Trina Polen, and Mike Gillespie select material with which to tell the story of the year.

Familiar Scenes

Students answer summons of the opening bell, reluctant to leave the freedom of vacation days.

Summer's over! There's excitement in the air. A tangy fall morning marks the opening of school — a return to friends, teachers, books, and new ideas — or old ideas refurbished. Yes, we said, this will be the year of all years — and we really meant it!

Latecomers receive help from competent secretaries, Miss Betty Mae Hansen and Mrs. Mary C. Moore.

Recall Early Fall Days

Old friends linger over lunch and gossip until the last split second before class time.

Conferences with teachers put students on the right track. Mr. Secor assigns a locker to Bill Stinson.

Pep Rallies Add

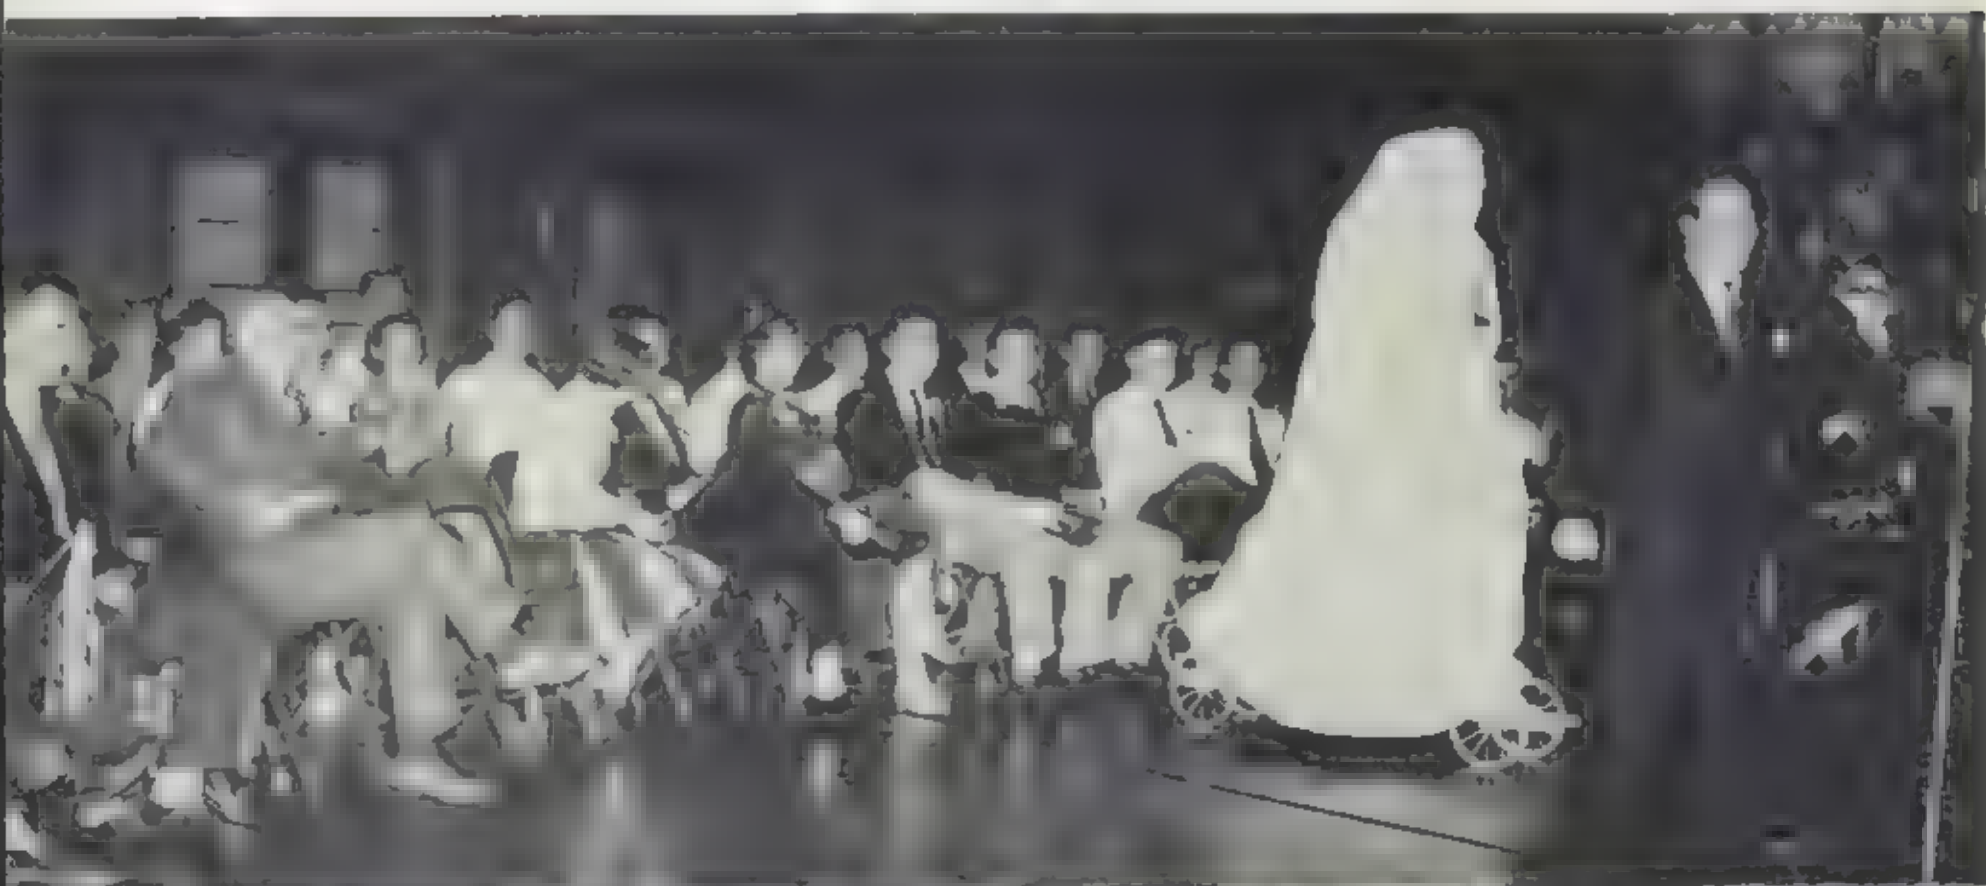

Left: Sixth Period Classes move to deposit books before attending pep rally. Below: Cheers hit the roof of the gym. The gym will remain long in the memory of Abingtonians as a place of gay times and much fun.

Loyal Abingtonian's are wild about the recent model of the Ghost-on-wheels.

The School Board of Abington Township gives unstintingly of its time to careful examination of the multitude of details necessary to achieve those goals which elevate a school from the mediocre to the superb. Abington's superb reputation did not come about accidentally. Hard work made it inevitable, and the School Board has given liberally of that hard work.

In planning a new high school for the township, the Board prepares a golden future in education for Abington students. The new high school, now in process of coming to life on a lovely forty-five acre site, promises to be a most valuable contribution to school as well as community needs. Designed to house fifteen hundred students, with a potential for serving even a greater number if need be, the structure will represent the best in modern school architecture. In guiding this building program from blue print to reality, the School Board of Abington contributes materially to the future welfare of the community.

The vision and energies of Dr. O. H. English, Superintendent, give form to Abington's School of Tomorrow.

Their Plans Encompass the Years Ahead

Alington's early high school structure dates from the year 1888.

Geniality, integrity, and constant concern for student welfare make Mr. F. B. Gernert, principal of Alington Senior High School, an outstanding leader in education.

Mr. M. F. Ward, Northam assistant principal, to whom students and teachers alike go for advice, in exchange of ideas takes time from a busy day to answer Pat Knyan's question.

This rollicking comedy, directed by Mr. Gantt and Mrs. Richards, and presented by the Seniors, on December four and five, showed the change of heart wrought in the personality of the straight-laced dean of a girls' school by the naive but determined country girl, Jennie.

Jaunty Juniors

Dave Young drives through Upham in scoring attempt

Juniors at last!! The class of '55 had a wonderful year, distinguishing itself most notably in sports. Even before school opened, sports-minded Juniors were warming up on the football field — a maneuver that brought excellent results. The team went on to win the Suburban One Championship with eight Junior boys receiving varsity letters.

Football, however, was not the only sport about which the Juniors could boast. Smith was the first team All Suburban and second team All Suburban soccer guard. L. DeHaves and R. McVane were two outstanding point collectors for the boys' swimming team, while R. Zimmerman was the Junior contribution to the wrestling squad. Turning to basketball, we find the Class of '55 equally well represented by eight Junior boys, three of them — W. Pickwell, J. Holmes, and R. West — playing varsity for the second year.

We find the spirit of competition and excitement was not restricted to sports alone. In the election of class officers, posters, speeches, and heated debates characterized the campaigns of the various candidates. When the air cleared, W. Young had been elected President, R. West, Vice President, W. Thompson, treasurer, and C. Scholz, secretary.

The school year closes now for a busy junior class. See you in September!

Super Sophs

Four hundred nine sophomores entered Abington this September, breaking all enrollment records in the school's history. The class, large but well-rounded, contributed admirably and in many categories to the betterment of Abington.

One of the foremost events of the year was the choice of Gail Smith as an exchange student to our affiliate school, the Lily Braun Schule, in Germany.

Sportswise, the sophomore class was well represented. Richard Barber and Alfred Dennis, football; Tom Galloway, soccer; Richard Clark, cross country; Richard Schmauk, wrestling; and Arthur Blank, swimming; all earned varsity letters and were exceptionally outstanding in their respective sports.

The sophomore girls, not to be outdone in this phase, boasted Brenda Beatty, rifle team sharpshooter; Elizabeth McMeekin and Nancy Krewson, a pair of basketball and hockey starlets.

Turning to publications, we find Maria Denver, Barbara Woodward, and Ellen Snodgrass working to meet Abingtonian deadlines. The Junior Fourth Estate counted four sophomores among its members — Lou Lawver, Lee Lawver, Judy Hayter and Pat Ambler.

From the music department came an exceptionally talented and equally popular boys' quartet. This group consisting of Mike Lieber, Hall McKinney, Alfred Cox, and Tom Whitefield, added a welcome touch to Abington's assemblies and pep rallies.

Band members, Fred Epting and Peter Scanlin, along with Richard Cagno and Steve Murray, orchestra, rounded out the sophomore musical picture.

On the basis of such a record, there seems to be little doubt that, before graduating in 1956, the sophomore class will contribute much to the improvement and reputation of Abington Senior High School.

Gridders Take Title Finish with Undefeated Season

Bill Bannak on his way out of bounds at Cheltenham

Sparked by stalwart seniors Casey, Fechter, Grasso, Hottle, Love, Rhoads, F. and H. Terrenzio, Wilson, and Vaughn — the 1953 gridgers won the Suburban A Championship, finishing undefeated and untied, in their nine-game schedule for the first time in 25 years.

After opening the season by vanquishing Penn Charter 26-0, and stampeding Haverford 46-0, the Carrollmen edged out a determined Lower Merion club 19-13, in one of the most exciting clashes of the season.

Collingdale fell to the count of 27-6 and Upper Darby's best effort was a 19-0 encounter. Continuing their superb play, the Ghosts downed Ridley Township 31-7.

In perhaps its toughest contest, the Maroon and White pulled out a 13-7 win over Chester in the last quarter to clinch the Suburban Championship. Played on a muddy field, this game was climaxed by a West to Rhoads pass in the final quarter after Hottle had snared another one of West's heaves in the first quarter.

In the next clash, this determined Abington aggregation subdued always rough Norristown 13-0.

To finish the season in a blaze of glory, Coach Carroll led his charges to a decisive win over Cheltenham 27-7.

The community honored the team at a Testimonial Dinner at which the lettermen received sweaters, and Coach Carroll was honored by captains Holmes, Rhoads, and Vaughn.

Abington's offensive ace, Rollie West, proves himself just as good at defense.

Bill Bannak drives goalward as Panthers converge.

Booters Topple Hill

By wrapping up their season with the first Abington soccer win over powerful Hill School, 2-1, the Ganttmen posted a final log of four wins, ten losses, and three ties. In addition, the booters tied the Alumni in the season's only night contest.

Captain Ed Fitzgerald, Walt Pickwell, and Bill Mulley led the season's scoring with four goals each. Ed Fitzgerald, Wayne Smith, and Tommy Galloway made the ad suburban squad. Smith also made the ad scholastic team. Jim Strickland, John Garbutt, Bob McCarron, Jack Easton, Doug Cherry, Ed Miller, and Sam Simonetti filled out the rest of the squad.

Harriers Win at Marcus Hook

Climaxing a highly successful season, the Abington harriers captured first place honors in the Lions' Club Invitational meet at Marcus Hook. Paced by Dick Voltz, who took fourth, the Zekemen edged out a strong Lower Merion team to win one of the most coveted trophies in the district.

In the District meet at Cope's Creek the team finished third, while Voltz (fifth) and Ed Hotham (eleventh) qualified for the State Championship meet at Penn State by finishing in the first twenty. Voltz finished twenty-second in the State Meet, while Hotham, who still has another year at Abington, was the forty-eighth man to cross the line.

Hockeyettes Score Four Wins

Spurred on by Billy, the Good Luck Kid, a stuffed teddy bear, the hockeyettes worked and fought for their '54 record of four wins, three ties, and one loss.

Under the tutelage of Mrs. Thompson, the Maroon and White tied Central Bucks 2-2 in the opening thriller. After being tied again by Ambler 1-1, the hockeyists were downed by Jenkintown 4-1.

Getting back to the winning side, Abington won the next four games; Hatboro 4-0, Lower Merion 3-1, Springfield 2-1, and Norristown 3-0.

The traditional Cheltenham game ended the season with a 2-2 score, although both sides had a fighting determination to win.

The season was dotted by such colorful events as the wearing of knee socks or oddly matched shoes and a broken finger.

Appropos to a year of tie scores, Wanda Van Wagenen and Carolyn Emery are tied for the title of high scorer. Playing their last year for Abington were Maxine Swift, Carolyn Emery, Wanda Van Wagenen, Sue Justice, Judy Slotterbeck, Norma Fiss, Lucy Gutman, Anne Fetterolf, and Joan Zimmermann.

The Maroon and White Six, Take Four

Inspired by high scorer, Maxine Swift, the girls' basketball team ran up a record of four wins, three losses, one tie. Coach Thompson's gals fought hard and long, grinding out every point. Opponents of the Maroon and White left the game knowing our girls were mighty stalwart scrappers.

Cagers—York-Mont Champs

After winning nine of their first ten games, Coach Fegley's cagers finished the campaign with an overall record of eighteen wins and eight losses.

By downing Jenkintown, 54-44, Cheltenham, 73-52, and Central Bucks, 63-31, the Maroon and White captured the York-Mont Tournament for the second consecutive year.

Rollie West, the tournament's most valuable player, led the Ghost's season scoring attack with 439 points. Rhoads tallied 236, while Bob Kauffman, John Holmes, and Walt Pickwell all racked up over 100 points a piece.

Although losing four of his five highest scorers, Coach Fegley should be able to build a fine team next year, around returning lettermen Rollie West, Walt Pickwell, Wayne Smith, and Gordon Biddle.

Grapplers Down Chelts

By winning seven of nine meets, the grappling Ghosts posted one of the finest records ever piled up by an Abington mat team. After beating Haverford, Springfield, Lansdowne, Bristol, Cheltenham, and Norristown twice while losing only to Upper Darby and Lower Merion, the wrestlers showed some fine individual work as Ronnie Vaughn and Bill James won the District and Regional Championships, before losing out at State College. Ron Zimmerman was runner-up in both the Districts and Regionals, while Dom Giovinazzo and Carl Cross were runner-ups in the District Meet.

Mermaids Log .500

With their squad of veterans and many new sophomores, Miss Clark's aquamaids produced a record of three wins, one tie, and three losses.

The team defeated Lincoln 46-20; Norristown 36-30; and Upper Darby 36-30. The meet with Haverford resulted in a tie 33-33. Although they fought valiantly to win, they were beaten by Lower Merion 43-23; Coatesville 38-28; and George School 40-26.

On March 20, the girls captured fourth place in the P.I.A.A. District Meet at the University of Pennsylvania. Barbara Bitting secured a first place in diving and Barbara Christ, a second. The other girls who placed were J. Walker, P. Whitley, W. VanWagenen, C. Scholly, B. J. Robinson, and J. Mahon. Replacing Barbara Christ and Jane Gordon, co-captains, will be Cynthia Scholly, captain-elect for '55.

DeFlavis Shatters District Mark

Pawling's paddlers, captained by Bob Wilson and composed mostly of underclassmen, won six out of fourteen dual meets, taking second in the Suburban I League and a third place in the District I Championships.

After winning their first five meets, the aquamen went into a slump which they snapped out of at the end of the season by beating Camden County Vocational, champs of their league, by a score of 47-28.

In the District Meet, the team finished third, with Tom De Flavis breaking the district record for the 100-yard freestyle with a 1:45.1 time.

Erbmen Promise Sizzling Season

The 1954 baseball season could be Abington's best since its 1948 Championship campaign. The Maroon and White nine, which opened with victories over Central and Springfield, was led by such veterans as Dan Fisher, left fielder; Ed Grasso, catcher; Jack Love, pitcher; Ronnie Vaughn, shortstop; and pitcher-outfielders, Rollie West and Dave Schmidt. Key line-up spots and other positions include Walt Pickwell, lead-off man, playing second; Jerry Fechter, third baseman, batting third; Rollie West, clean-up batter; Dan Fisher, the team's most consistent hitter, batting fifth; Duke Young, center fielder, batting sixth; first baseman Bob Brosso, batting seventh; catcher Ed Grasso batting eighth; and left-fielder Bill Day in the ninth spot. The pitching was handled by Rollie West, Dave Schmidt, Jack Love, and Dave Young.

Cindermen Set Hot Pace

Blooming out with the crocuses and daffodils, our track team has been stretching its collective muscles and trimming its winter stomachs outdoors in preparation for the coming season.

Among the seniors are B. Fischel, running the 100 and 220 yards events and D. Voltz, running the 880 and mile events. The juniors and sophomores include J. Dennis, pole vaulting; E. Hotham, 880 yards and mile; several underclassmen who show promising prospects are G. Long, R. Freed, J. Manning, R. Schmauk, and R. Cagno.

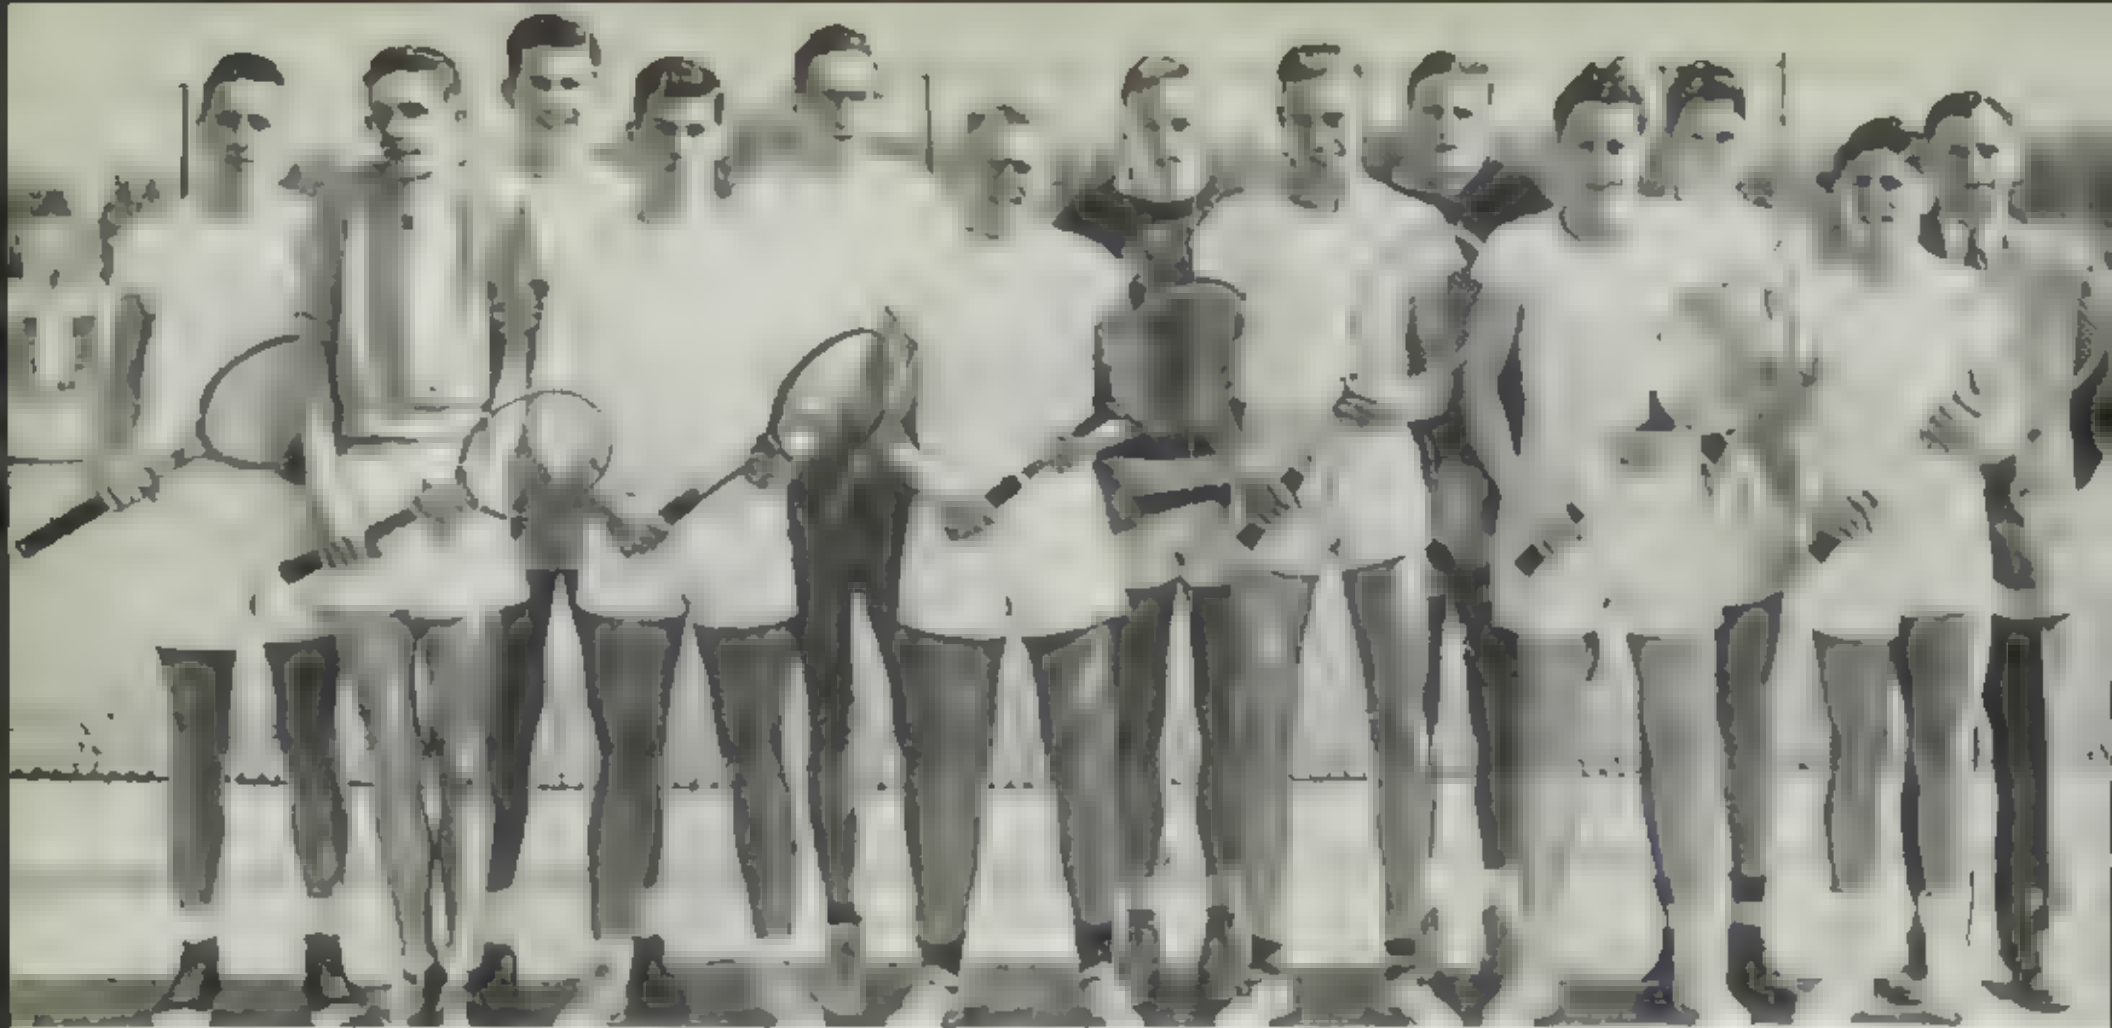

Coach Pawling seems well satisfied that he will have a team of some ability, and he is pointing to a season of excellent performances.

Coach Carroll, assisting, is likewise lending his efforts to train an efficient group of athletes.

Racquet-Swingers of '54 in Good Form

Swinging for a top record, returning veterans, Carolyn Emery, Lucy Gutman, Wanda VanWagenen, Priscilla Uhler, Judy Slotterbeck and Germaine Bender, formed the strong foundation for this year's team. Striving to win the remaining position on the team were Joan Schmidt, Charlotte Gentry, Barbara Motson and Cynthia Scholly.

The female racquet swingers met the teams of Radnor, Cheltenham, Upper Darby, Haverford, Berwyn, Lower Merion, Norristown, Lansdowne, Jenkintown, Springfield, George School, and Abington Friends. Under the excellent coaching of Mr. Stanis, the girls again made a fine record.

The 1954 boys' tennis hopefuls were greeted this spring by a man who was previously associated only with basketball in Abington. Vernard Fegley set about trying his hand as a tennis coach with assurance which augured good results. Sparked by Bill Scarlett, first singles, and Jay Rhoads, second singles, the racquetmen worked diligently toward a successful season.

The twelve-match schedule included Lincoln, Cheltenham, Norristown, Yeadon, Lansdowne, Radnor, Penn Charter, Bryn Athyn, Lower Merion, Haverford and George School.

Linksmen Place Second

Led by returning lettermen, Dominick Giovinazzo, Jack Easton, and Harry Love, the Maroon linksmen face the heaviest schedule that they have come up against in recent years. Larry Friedman, Jim Savory, and Art Blank have shown the best form to date, but either Dick Hornbaker or John Garbutt could crash the starting five.

With the addition of Norristown to the schedule, the par busters have twelve matches, two each with Cheltenham, Berwyn, Lower Merion, and the Eagles and single matches against Lincoln, Central, Penn Charter, and Haverford School.

Marksman Capture Six

"Ready on the right? — ready on the left? — load and fire." And fire they did, until at the end of the season Dave Clark's sharpshooters had won six of their seven matches.

The deadeyes, off to a good start, took West Catholic 493-489. However at their second match, Upper Darby handed the marksmen their only defeat 491-497. They came back to beat Lower Merion 493-492, Yeadon 494-486, Prospect Park 490-482, Quakertown 493-489, and Dovlestown 493-492.

Bill Day and Jim Cherry had the highest seasonal average (98.3 each) with Don MacGregor running a close second.

Swift Pitching!

Many returning lettermen and a number of sophomores made up Miss Herzog's softball team of 1951.

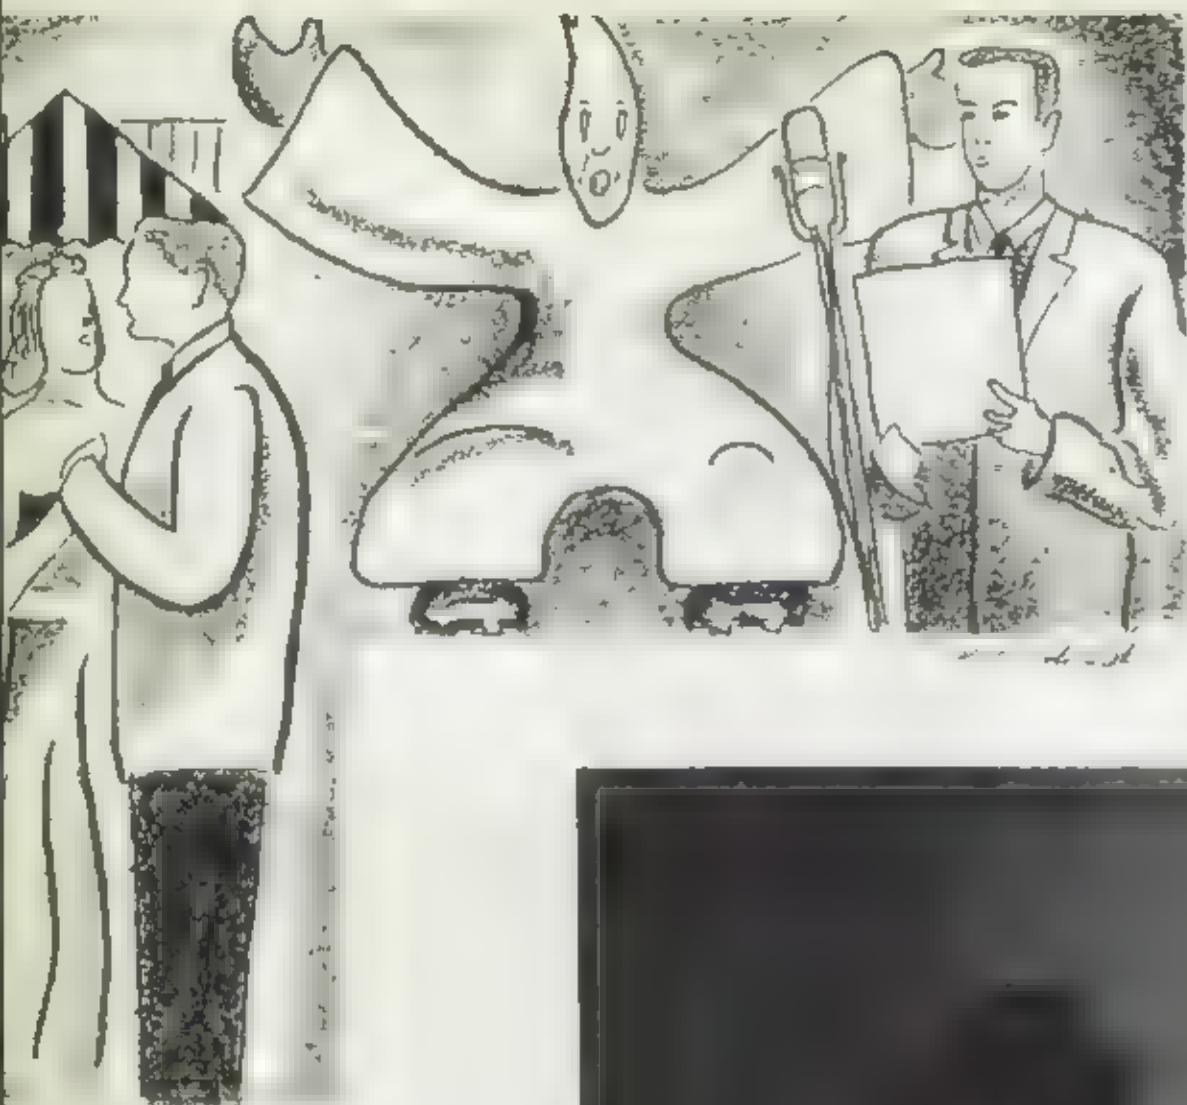

Some of the varsity veterans were M. Swift, and E. Hoppe, leading pitchers of the squad, and P. Whitley and C. Barnard behind the plate. The field positions were held by I. Arenz, G. Apel, C. Barber, L. Crabtree, R. Ryan, R. Scarborough, E. Knott, J. Enley, L. Meigs, and M. Widdis. N. Kreider returned to be the head manager.

They started their season by meeting Jenkintown; then they continued the season with Lansdowne, Lower Moreland, Springfield, Cheltenham, Friend's Select, and Upper Moreland.

Student Council

During the past year, the Student Council contributed to the advancement of the school in many ways!

In addition to the management of the school store, the JAC Dance, the Dog House, two Open House parties, and the Christmas party for the old people at Christ Home, the Student Council through the very active Spirit Committee planned successful pep rallies, and presented the school with a Ghost, which will be the new school mascot.

When delegates Norma Fiss, Bill Hummel, and Jack Love attended the Pennsylvania Association of Student Councils' Convention at Pittsburgh, Abington was selected as the site for next year's P. A. S. C. Convention. Gordon Biddle was elected by the Abington student body to be next year's P. A. S. C. president. Delegates also attended the fall, winter, and spring meetings of the Philadelphia Suburban Association of Student Councils.

Having been chosen to spend next year in Germany, Gail Smith, through the Affiliation work of the Council, will be the first student to represent Abington at the Lily Braun Schule.

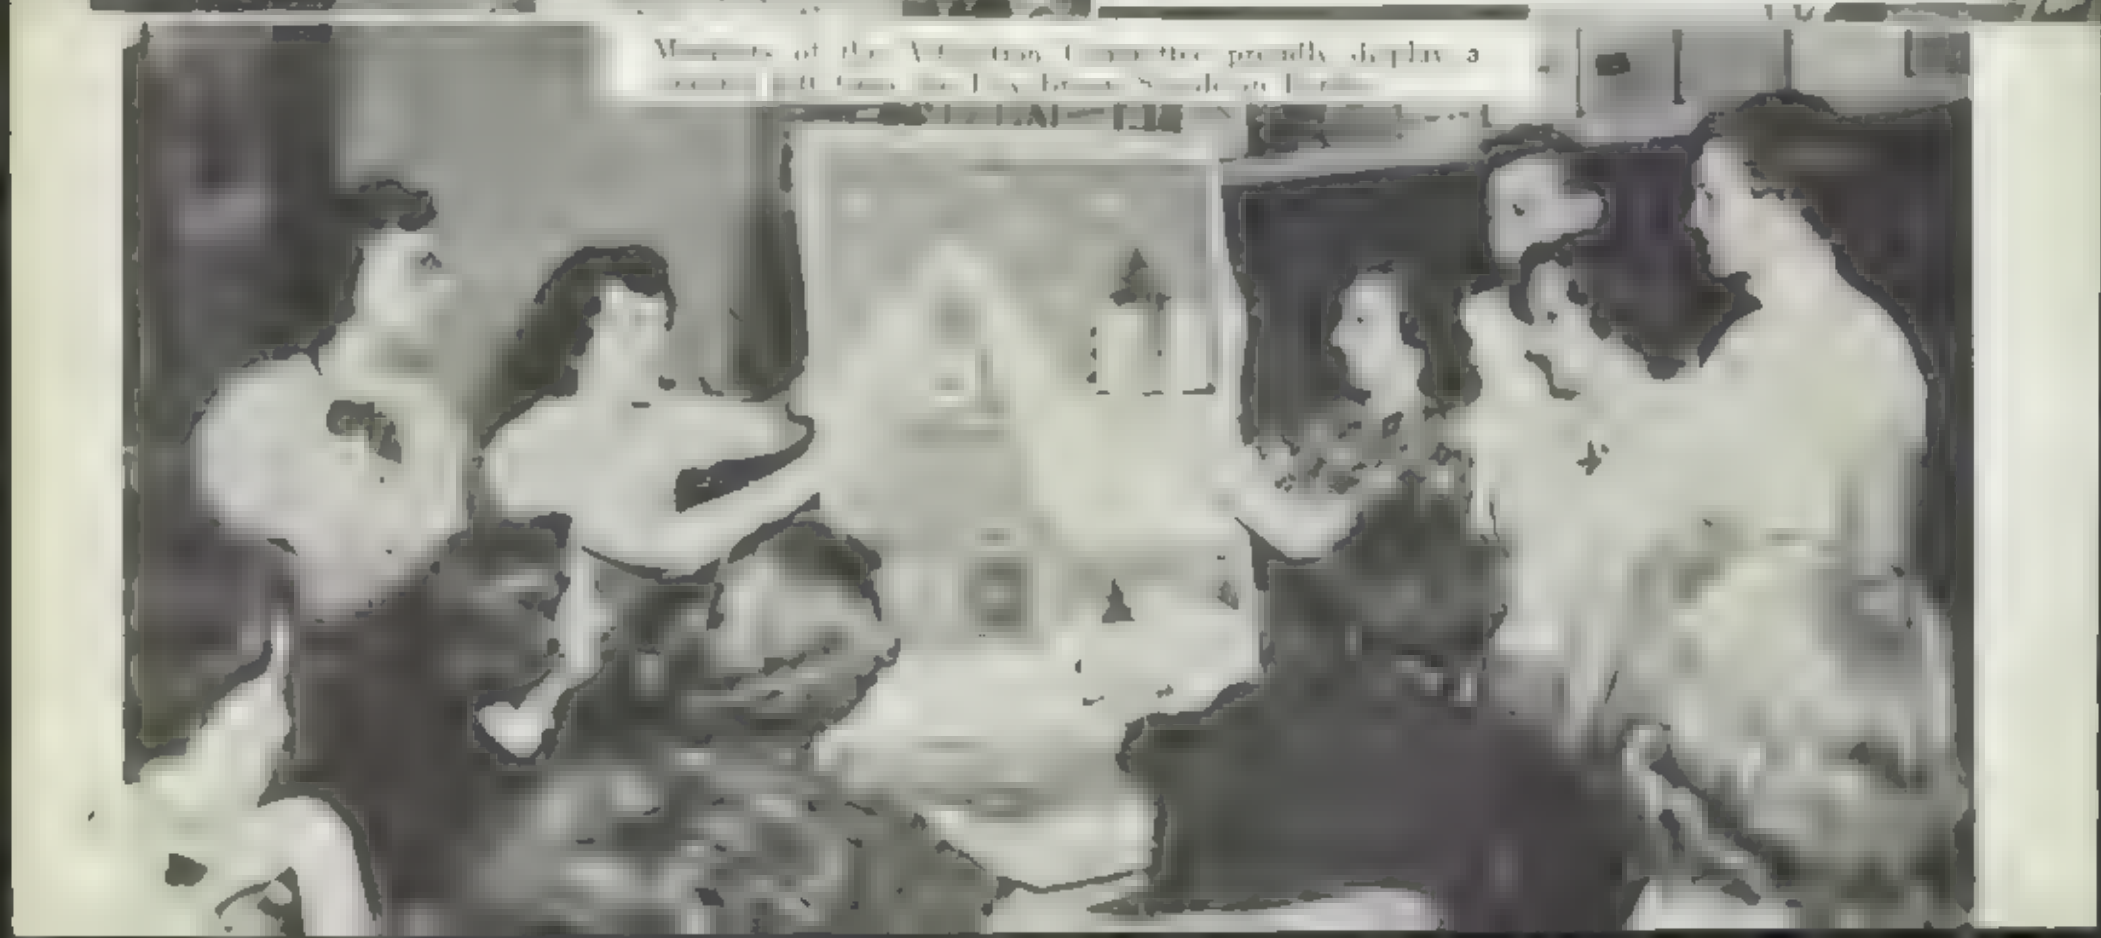

Students cram into the school store managed by Lucy Gulman, Jane Gordon, Barbara Schmitt for last minute purchases before store closes.

Hot Day - Pleasant! Students work frantically to satisfy our efforts in the Art Room.

President Jack Love, Mrs. Clark, and President of the coming convention, German student, come to pledge their efforts to success at Student Councils' Convention next fall.

Student Scribes Gives Answers in Stories . .

... Where? ... Why? ...

Under the able guidance of Dorothy Cathell and Allan A. Glatthorn, Abington's prize-winning newspaper, the Abingtonian, enjoyed another successful year. An active staff including many sophomores and juniors helped editors Jane Frishmuth, Al Grieb, Susan Weidler, and John Easton to plan and publish this ever growing paper. Not only did the Abingtonian provide news, editorials and interesting interviews for its readers, but also delighted them by originating two six-page issues which included a Letters-to-the-Editor Department and other interesting features. Hats off to a great newspaper and its fine staff.

J4E STAFF

Abington's Junior Fourth Estate received national recognition this year as one of the seven nationally recognized press release systems in the National School Public Relations Association handbook, "Let's Go To Press."

The J4E system calls for all twelve township schools to channel their news through the senior high school press and Miss Mary Grace Ambler, the Director of Public Relations. The news is released to local, suburban, and city newspapers. Junior Fourth Estate also cooperates with the Abington Township Teachers' Association, P. T. A. groups, and local organizations.

Managing Editors are B. Anthony, M. Benham, R. Snyder, R. Utal, J. Utz.

ORACLE STAFF

Student contributions, both literary and artistic, provide material for the Oracle. Published twice a year and read by almost all Abingtonians, this magazine has won numerous first prizes. Sponsors Miss Cathell and Mr. Glatthorn spend many hours helping the staff and editor, Joan Fernandez, select and assemble the best material for the Oracle. Poems, stories, interviews, editorials, and art work play a very important part in this magazine which is enjoyed by students throughout the school.

Informative . . . Entertaining . . . Creative

The Annual

The Yearbook staff has worked long, hard and busily to make 1954's Yearbook a success. Under the guidance of Mrs. Richards, student-made dummy pages, identified pictures, checked lists, and composed write-ups, headlines, and picture legends. Thanks to everyone who pitched in and helped, we hope this year's book will serve as a constant reminder of the happy days of the year 1953-1954. And in the giving of their time and effort, the staff experienced the fun that comes with working together. Editors were Janet Smith — Senior section; Barbara Spindell — Layout; Trina Polen and Mike Gillespie — Copy.

Thirty-Seven Clubs Offer . . .

Mr. Reitz' Projector Operating Club learns all about machines that go round and round

The Club's The Thing

Third period Tuesday finds students hurrying to one of the thirty-seven school clubs. The purpose of Abington's club program is to have every student participate in an activity of his own choosing. The club program is so varied and interesting that it makes selection difficult. The clubs run the gamut from Archery to Scrabble. The boys and girls in the Ornamental Iron Club get a chance to work artistically in iron while making useful articles for the home. One of the biggest, the Hunting and Fishing Club, has movies and discussions on natural sports. Creative Writing gives the members a chance to read, write, and criticize each other's work.

Through the varied school club program, many hobbies are started and many talents discovered. Teacher and pupil are brought together in a closer relationship while students get a chance to participate in an activity outside of the regular school curriculum.

Zing! Goes the string of that bow. Co-sponsors Armstrong and Coleman train young bowmen in the Archery Club

Tippy Tippy Tap! Tippy Toe! Miss Herzog's dancers try an intricate routine

. . . A Bonanza of Fun

Shall We Dance?

Many parties and dances through the year give Altonians the occasion to practice the social graces. The Crystal Ball, Fantasia, Carousel, the Vocational Valentine, the Publications' Mardi Gras, and Le Coq d'Or, plus the many Open House and sports parties, provide numerous opportunities to work together in committee planning, and to have fun polishing up the cheek-to-cheek skills.

Dancers enjoy one of the highlights of the evening at the Vocational Valentine affair.

Lucas, Pomeroy and Jan, Co-eds of the AHS, are a sight to behold.

Some of the girls of the AHS, at the Valentine affair, showing off their new dresses.

Dancers Marjorie Pascoe and a partner, at the Valentine affair, are a sight to behold.

Acknowledgement

We wish to thank the many people who have contributed their time and effort to help create this yearbook: Miss Emma C. Haldeman, for much encouragement and concrete help; Miss Edith Milne and her Art staff; Mr. Charles Roberts and his Business students for their help with advertisements, subscriptions, and typing; Mr. Ellwood Smith and his Mechanical Arts boys; Robert Utal, student photographer; Miss Ann McCarthy, Mr. Carl Wolff, and Mr. Robert Shaen of Zamsky Studios; Mr. Sidney Schultz and the H. G. Roebuck Publishing Company, Mr. E. B. Gernert, Mr. M. E. Northam, and members of the faculty. We should like to offer a special vote of thanks to the senior typists, Arlene Sloan and Rochelle Rich for their devotion to an arduous task, and to all other students who have helped in some manner.

Adviser Emma S. Richards and the Yearbook Staff

Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow!

Spirit of Abington Fulfilled

*There was fun;
There was work;
There was progress,
From sophomore to senior;
From new student to graduate.
But the end is not really the end
Only a magnificent new beginning.*

The End is but a New Beginning!

A MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1954 ON SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

With your graduation, you have, in a manner of speaking, emerged into the community . . . and you soon will be expected to assume the responsibilities of a citizen. Primarily, this responsibility requires you to serve your community: to think intelligently about its problems, to work conscientiously with your fellow citizens to solve these problems and help build a better place in which to live. In doing this, you will help build a greater America. For America's greatness has its roots in small communities such as ours.

There will be ample opportunity to perform this service regardless of your future activity; whether, for example, you follow business, law, medicine, manufacturing, education, insurance, or any other means of livelihood. And you will find that its performance brings great satisfaction. We know this to be true, for we speak from experience. Publishing, which is our livelihood, offers tremendous opportunities to serve the community. And we have been serving for 60 years.

.... It Pays
TO WORK AT MURPHY'S

My name is Betty and I have a story which I think will interest many of you. It's about my experience in the retailing field. Believe me. Variety Store business is fast-moving and interesting. Each counter is a store in itself.

Here at Murphy's one learns retailing from the bottom up! I started out as an extra salesgirl, working every day after school. When I was graduated, I was fortunate to be placed in charge of a counter. I never knew how really interesting this work could be . . . it's just like having a shop of my own.

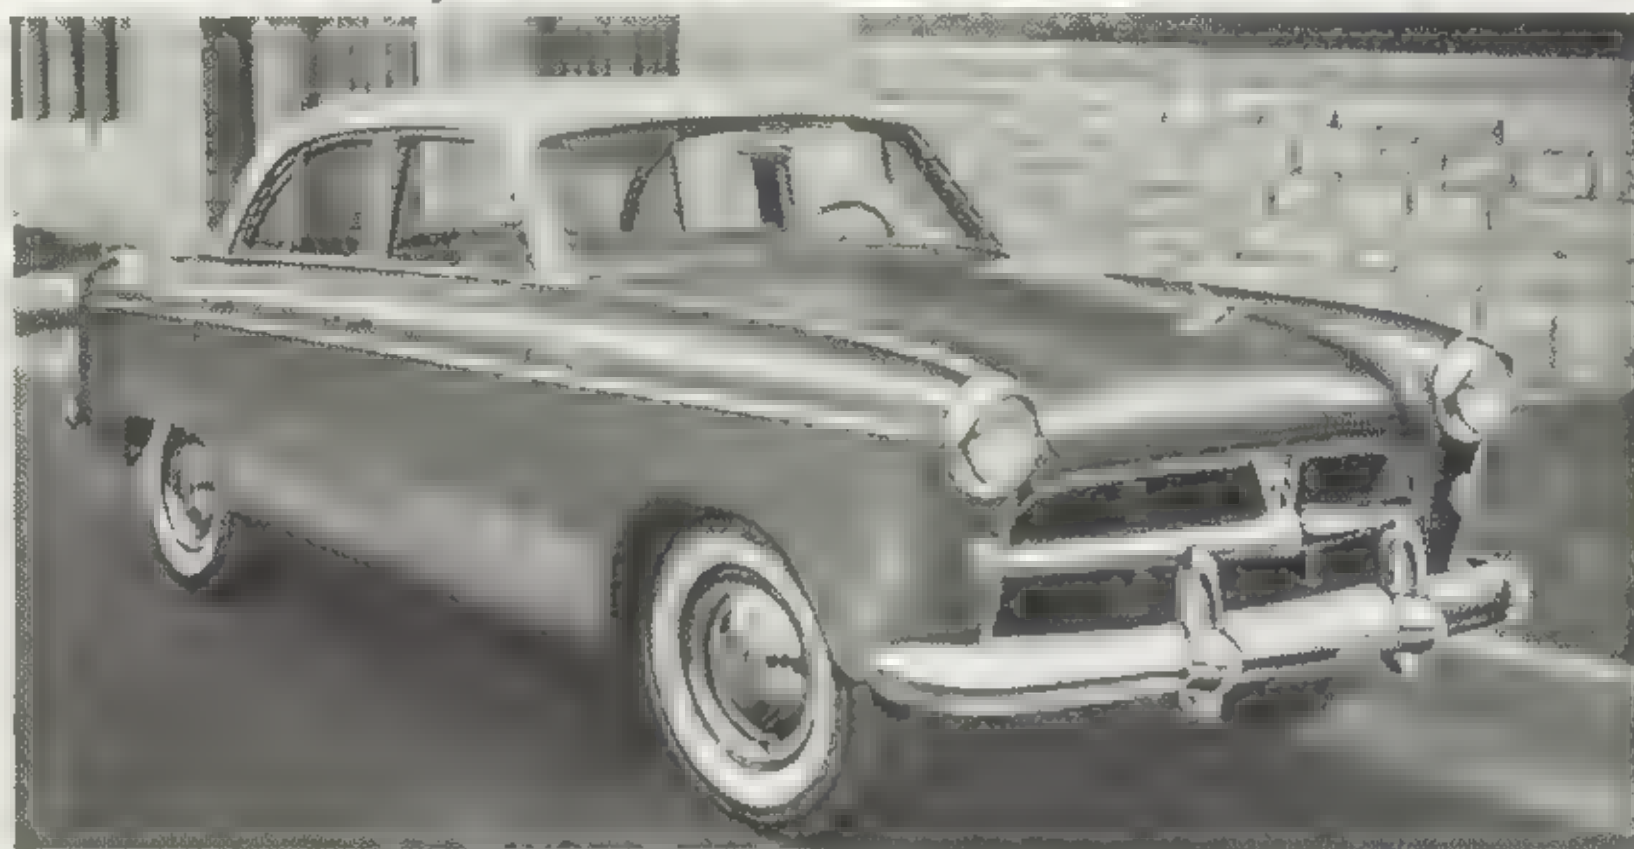

I'm growing here, taking more responsibility as I go. There's still more room for advancement . . . I can work myself into a position of merchandise buyer, section supervisor or bookkeeper in the office. Soon I hope to be selected to train for the job of Personnel Directress in a large new Murphy Store.

All of us at Murphy's have an equal chance to better ourselves. From what I can see Murphy's is tops in training . . . and there isn't a store in town to beat Murphy's on Employee benefits!

If you're ambitious to make a "go" of retailing, join the "Gang" at Murphy's soon as you can.

G. C. MURPHY COMPANY

Willys Deluxe 4-Door Ace for 1954

MORE HORSEPOWER per pound than any passenger car in the low-priced field and extensive styling changes distinguish Willys models for 1954. A new "Super-Hurricane" six-cylinder engine which delivers 115 h.p. has increased Willys horsepower 27 per cent over '53 models. A broad one-piece rear window is standard in all models and buyers have a choice of 12 monotone and two-tone body color combinations in the Willys Eagle, Ace and Lark models. Illustrated is the Ace Deluxe four-door sedan.

QUALITY FIRST

...a Philco Policy

FROM THE MOMENT it is conceived to the moment it is delivered, every Philco product is built to the most rigid standards of performance and dependability. In every step of its design and manufacture, the first consideration is quality. No reduction in cost, no economy of production is permitted that makes the slightest compromise with quality or reliability. To the end that, for the price you pay, you may have confidence that the Philco name on any product gives you the assurance of the finest quality your money can buy.
